DRAFTING TEMPLATE | ONE SPECIFIC MATTER

LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY

India - English-language, print-and-complete draft for a specified transaction or task

IMPORTANT - READ BEFORE SIGNING

- This is a general drafting aid, not a statutory or government-approved form, and not legal advice. It does not guarantee validity or acceptance in any Indian State or Union Territory.

- Stamp duty, wording, witnesses, notarization or other attestation, registration, and acceptance can depend on the State/UT, where it is signed, the act authorized, and the receiving institution. Ask an India-qualified lawyer and the intended recipient what is required before signing.

- Write the authority narrowly in Schedule A; do not sign with material blanks. This is not a healthcare directive and does not make the authority durable or determine its effect if the Principal becomes incapacitated.

1. PRINCIPAL (PERSON GRANTING AUTHORITY)

I, the undersigned Principal, appoint the person named below only for the matter and acts expressly described in this document and Schedule A.

Principal full legal name
As shown on identity documents

Parent / spouse name (optional)
Complete only if needed

Full residential address, including PIN code

Contact details (optional)
Phone or email

Optional identity description / reference
Avoid a full sensitive ID number unless required

Age or date of birth (if required)

2. ATTORNEY / AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE

I appoint the following person as my Attorney / Authorized Representative (the "Attorney") for this limited purpose:

Attorney full legal name
As shown on identity documents

Relationship to Principal (optional)

Full residential address, including PIN code

Contact details (optional)
Phone or email

Optional identity description / reference
Avoid a full sensitive ID number unless required

Age or date of birth (if required)

3. APPOINTMENT

I authorize the Attorney to act for me only in relation to the matter stated in Schedule A, and only to perform the specific acts written there, subject to the limits and conditions in this document. No general or implied authority is granted. Attach additional pages only if clearly titled "Schedule A - continued" and identified as part of this document.

SCHEDULE A | PART OF THIS LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY

SPECIFIC AUTHORITY

Complete this page in detail. The Attorney receives no authority beyond what is clearly written here.

IMPORTANT - READ BEFORE SIGNING

- Name the exact task, transaction, asset, authority, institution, and relevant reference number. Use full legal descriptions where applicable.

- If more room is needed, attach dated pages marked "Schedule A - continued" and have the Principal and Attorney sign or initial each page as advised by local counsel.

A. Purpose / matter for which authority is granted

Describe the task or transaction, intended outcome, and any case / application reference.

B. Relevant person, institution, authority, or counterparty (if applicable)

C. Asset, property, account, document, or other subject matter (if applicable)

For property, include the description and identifiers required by the receiving authority; attach a schedule if needed.

D. Exact acts the Attorney is authorized to perform

Write each permitted act separately. Specify what may be signed, submitted, received, paid, or collected, including any amount or boundary. Do not use broad phrases such as "do everything".

E. Express limits, exclusions, or acts that are NOT authorized

State monetary caps, prohibited acts, approvals, or conditions. If none, write "None".

F. Supporting documents / attachments forming part of this authority

List every attachment by title and page count, or write "None".

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

LIMITS, TERM AND REVOCATION

Read each clause. Complete the dates and expense terms; have local counsel review any needed changes.

1. Strictly limited scope. This authority is limited to the specific matter and acts written in Schedule A. It does not authorize any act not expressly stated there. If a term conflicts, make the intended terms consistent before signing and obtain legal advice.

2. Commencement and expiry. This authority is intended to begin on the effective date below, subject to required formalities. It ends at the earliest of the expiry date, completion of the specified matter, or revocation as permitted by applicable law. Do not leave the end point uncertain.

Effective date (if different from signing date)	Expiry date (write a date)

Completion event that ends authority (if applicable) If not applicable, write "None"	State / Union Territory where it will be used

3. No implied or unrelated authority. Unless specifically and lawfully authorized in Schedule A, the Attorney may not delegate this appointment, gift or transfer the Principal's property to themself, pledge or borrow against the Principal's property, or use this authority for personal benefit. This document grants no authority over healthcare or unrelated matters.

4. Records, funds and expenses. The Attorney should keep records of acts performed and funds or documents handled, provide an account and copies on request, and return the Principal's documents when the authority ends. Reimbursement or compensation is only as written below and as permitted by applicable law.

Expense / reimbursement terms (or write "None")	Compensation, if any (or write "None")

5. Revocation and notice. The Principal may revoke this authority in writing, subject to applicable law and required formalities. Give notice to the Attorney and each institution, authority, registry, or other person that may rely on this document. Ask whether a particular form, registration, or other notice is required.

6. Acceptance by others. A bank, public office, court, registry, counterparty, or other recipient may require its own form, supporting documents, verification, or additional formalities. This template does not require a third party to accept it.

7. Capacity and voluntariness. The Principal should sign only if they understand this document, act voluntarily, and have legal capacity to grant the authority. If there is doubt, pause and obtain independent legal advice.

PLEASE NOTE

- For immovable property, sale / transfer / registration, banking, litigation, or signing outside India, do not rely on this general template alone. Confirm the required form and formalities with an India-qualified lawyer and the recipient before signing.
